MAJOR

There is no such thing as the “starving artist” if you have your Bachelors of Art degree from VCSU. We give you the opportunity for:

- Excellent training for studio artists
- Broad understanding of art within the context of a liberal arts education
- Contribution to cultural environment of campus and community
- Multiple showcases to display your artwork at our own VCSU Gallery

FACILITIES AND RESOURCES

- Well-equipped space available to all students
- High-quality ceramic, sculpture, painting & printmaking facilities located on campus
- The area’s premier gallery, the VCSU Gallery

THE DIFFERENCE IS WHAT YOU DO.

You will have the chance to participate in opportunities outside of the classroom:

- Intern teaching opportunities in the VCSU Community School of the Arts
- Internships in the VCSU Art Gallery
- Exhibitions at VCSU Art Gallery, NDUS Humanities Summit, Jamestown and Pekin Art Shows, and many more!

GET INVOLVED!

Join organizations such as Art Students Collective and Art Student Alliance to have the chance to meet other art students. There are also opportunities to show off your talents during the Art Student Exhibition, Senior Exhibition and the Regional Exhibitions.

WHERE ARE GRADUATES NOW?

Jessica Sundquist, Professional Artist.

Jessica Christy, graduate student progressing through a MFA program. Jessica’s work is showing very well and is sought after by collectors. She is also the assistant to the Master Printer at Sundog Press.

Jennifer Cabezas, Professional Artist.

Other art alumni have successful careers as teachers and in digital graphics.
