Disclosure of Information

Campus Security Report

The purpose of the report is to inform the campus of campus crime prevention programs, crime reporting procedures and a three-year statistical history of criminal activity on campus. A copy of the campus security report is updated and distributed annually. The report can be found on the VCSU website at www.vcsu.nodak.edu. A printed copy is available at the Office of the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Drug Free School and Workplace Policy

This policy describes university policies regarding alcohol and other drug use. A copy of the Drug Free School Policy is published and distributed annually. The policy can be found on the VCSU website and at various distribution points on the campus. A copy of the policy is also available at the Office of the Vice President of Student Affairs. The Drug Free Workplace Policy is available at the Business Office. A copy of the policy is presented to each new employee.

Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act

The purpose of this policy is to disclose athletic participation rates and financial data related to athletics. The report is available at the Financial Aid Office or the Athletic Office.

Family Education Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA)

The purpose of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act is to afford certain rights to students concerning their educational records. The primary rights afforded are the right to inspect and review educational records, the right to seek to have the records corrected, and the right to have some control over the disclosure of information from records. The FERPA policy is included in the VCSU Bulletin and the Student Handbook.

Financial Aid

Financial aid and scholarship information is available at the Financial Aid Office. Information concerning financial aid refund and repayment policies is available from the Financial Aid and Business Offices and can be found in the VCSU Bulletin.

Student Right to Know

The purpose of this information is to disclose annual student completion, graduation, or transfer rates, including rates for student athletes. The report is available at the Registrar's Office.
