Email to students:

Valley City State University is thankful for your continued attendance. Our institution has received Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds (HEERF) under the 2021 American Rescue Plan Act. We are disbursing fund to our students to defray tuition and academic expenses. You are receiving funds because you are enrolled in a degree-seeking program and enrolled for Spring Semester 2022.

Grants to students with exceptional need are the priority of this funding. We hope this assistance will allow you to continue your academic pursuits, enroll in VCSU classes, and help with financial needs you might have.

Please review your Campus Connection account for details. The payment will be made directly to you. If you have outstanding VCSU charges, please consider using these funds to reduce that balance. If you have direct deposit set up, funds will be disbursed in that manner. (Please allow 3-5 business days for this transaction.) If you do not have direct deposit set up, you can pick your check up at the VCSU Business Office. Checks not picked up in person will be mailed to your permanent mailing address on March 11, 2022.

VCSU's allocation of HEERF III ARP Act is not expended and we will disburse the remaining fund to Summer Term 2022 students.
